

Roamer Is Beaten by a Head and Two Records Are Bettered in Day of Big Features at the Jamaica Track

STAR MASTER RUNS

Beats Roamer and George Smith and Covers Mile and a Furlong in 1:51 3-5.

MARK FOR LUCULLITE TOO

Dashes Six Furlongs in Columbus Handicap in 1:11 4-5—Lively Scores Again.

Two track records were broken at the Jamaica track yesterday afternoon. S. C. Hildreth's Lucullite, the best colt colt, which was the pride of Major Belmont's stable last year, displayed a world of speed in the Columbus Handicap and travelled six furlongs in the record time of 1:11 4-5. This is the fifth of a second better than the mark established by R. E. Watkins's Quadrille in 1905 and later equaled by Louis Foulke's He Will and W. L. Oliver's Kewassa.

In the Continental Handicap at one mile and a furlong A. K. Macomber's chestnut colt Star Master, defeated the field of handicap horses, including the champion Roamer and John Sander's George Smith. In accomplishing this feat Star Master ran in 1:51 3-5, clipping two-fifths of a second from the track record hung up by Richard T. Wilson's Tartar in 1915.

The success of the big holiday crowd which turned out to see the sport and the Liberty bond drive, Star Master's victory has been considered a great feat, but never was he considered to be in a class with Roamer or George Smith. As a result, the few friends who went to the post, the few friends, practically unbacked at 8 to 1.

Great Finish by Taplin.

The Macomber colt had an allowance of twelve pounds from Roamer and thirteen from George Smith and this pull in the weights is what enabled him to win the $2,000 purse. He won by the smallest of margins, and for his victory Eddie Taplin, who rode him, deserves great credit. He rode a masterly race and by a vigorous finish managed to get Star Master's nose home in front of the mighty Roamer.

Andrew Miller's old champion ran a remarkable race as in all his races he gave up everything he possessed. He set the pace throughout, staid long, hard drive through the stretch gamely and was struggling his hardest when he passed the judges. George Smith also ran his best. He didn't "prop" at the start of the race. He did his best throughout, but the 125 pounds he was shouldering was a trifle too much for him and he hung at the end and was compelled to accept third honors, a length behind Roamer. The race was a close one, but the contest, ran to the best of his ability, but he was never in the hunt.

Because of his recent fine performance George Smith was made an odds favorite at 4 to 5, with Roamer second choice at 7 to 10 and Corn Tassel well played at 8 to 2.

Away to a Good Start.

War Cloud and Manister, too, which were entered overnight, were withdrawn because their trainers believed it was going to rain and make the track heavy. The rain in the middle of the season and the track was lightning fast when the contestants went to the starter. At the post there was little delay and all the horses sent the field away on even terms.

Roamer had the most speed and before the first turn he was rounded he was going along with a length ahead of Star Master, with George Smith and Corn Tassel bringing up the rear.

In the run down the back stretch the old champion increased his lead to a length and a half. Around the bend that leads into the home stretch Schuttenger gave Roamer a courageous protest. He was in the middle of the season and the track was lightning fast when the contestants went to the starter. At the post there was little delay and all the horses sent the field away on even terms.

Roamer retained his big lead for only a short distance, for Star Master challenged and passed him. Around the bend that leads into the home stretch Schuttenger gave Roamer a courageous protest. Lucullite Springs Surprise.

Lucullite's great race also was a big surprise. He was the favorite and was expected to win, but few if any of the race of racers who believed he would hang up new figures.

Early in his juvenile year he was entered a champion, but he went wrong in the middle of the season and was retired. This year he competed in a few races, but failed to show any staying speed or stamina and recently his entry attracted little or no attention.

In his last start he was "sore" and showed little speed. Yesterday he was as fit as a fiddle. He tackled the race in the middle of the season and was retired. This year he competed in a few races, but failed to show any staying speed or stamina and recently his entry attracted little or no attention.

He got down to racing quickly and fore an eighth of a mile had been covered he was in front. Once in command he sped along at a terrific pace and increased his lead with every jump, until at the end he was eased up four lengths ahead of the field.

He took the lead of the remainder of the field and took second honors three lengths ahead of Ina Frank.

Lively the chestnut gelding owned by M. Kornblum, a local butcher, scored another victory in the first race. Fox Fox, his trainer, has worked wonders with him. He was expected to win the first race, to 1, and under a hustling ride by Schuttenger remained in front long enough to win on the post by a head.

WRESTLING ON TUESDAY.

The wrestling contest which will be staged in the Crescent Theatre in Brooklyn next Tuesday night will appeal to the devotees of the sport. Chief Boutwell's Mate Jack Harris of the Armed Forces will meet Ivan Orfedy of Jean Bruce will be forced to extend himself to the limit to defeat Lou Derain, former of the United States Navy, or Nicola Montagnone.

Kirkby and Anderson Are Beaten on Home Green

Coxe and Hobens Win Red Cross Golf Match on Knickerbocker Course by 1 Up—Professional's 72 Is Best of the Exhibition.

In a match that was in doubt until the last putt but he pitted on the home green, H. M. Coxe and Jack Hobens, the Englewood "pro", defeated Kirkby and John Anderson at the Knickerbocker Country Club yesterday afternoon, the margin in favor of the first named pair being 1 up. Owing to illness neither Jerome Traversa nor Max Master was able to put in an appearance, and the Englewood combination substituted in their stead.

Even though his card of 72 was the best in the field, but he pitted on the home green, H. M. Coxe and Jack Hobens, the Englewood "pro", defeated Kirkby and John Anderson at the Knickerbocker Country Club yesterday afternoon, the margin in favor of the first named pair being 1 up. Owing to illness neither Jerome Traversa nor Max Master was able to put in an appearance, and the Englewood combination substituted in their stead.

Again at the eighth Hobens scored, supplementing an indifferent tee shot by pitching to within 5 yards of the pin. He ran down his putt for a 3, and placed the ball in the hole. Kirkby and Anderson turned for home 1 up with a 5 at the sixth.

LIBERTY BOND WINS ON JAMAICA COURSE

With Uncle Sam in Saddle He Breezes Home to Tune of $1,702.850.

Liberty Bond scored a great victory at the Jamaica track yesterday. Ridden by Uncle Sam and cheered on by thousands of racers, he crossed the finish line in a record time of 1:11 4-5. The Long Island track victory by $1,702.850.

Immediately after this success James Butler, president of the Empire City Racing Association, declared that the Liberty Bond was a "winner" and that he was going to buy him for $100,000.

The "best bet in the world" came through the home stretch at a terrific pace. During the afternoon he gained 122.850.

Among those Uncle Sam put in charge of the finish were three American soldiers who had been wounded in France. They had been in the line of duty for a long time and were now home on furlough.

Senator Reynolds was the second highest winner. He wagered $50,000.
